Changes in Hong Kong

Do you know what is the different between old Hong Kong and new Hong Kong? In this article, you will know more about the different of transport, jobs, housing and entertainment between nowadays and in the past.

In the past, there were trams. Only rich people could travel by rickshaw, but poor people could only ride bicycles. Nowadays, people travel by car or MTR. There's no doubt, travelling by car or MTR are more comfortable because there are air-conditioners.

In the past, people were farmers. People worked hard on the farm. It was not a comfortable job because people sweated a lot. Nowadays, people work indoor, such as teachers and shopkeepers. There are also air-conditioners in the office.

At present, children play online games, they don't do any outdoor activities. However, in the past, children played beanbags and card games. Playing with friends in the past made good connection with friends.

To conclude, living in the past is happier because nowadays people's life is very busy, so that they do not have time to relax.

People in the past had a lot of time to spend on playing with friends.
